

March 11, 2019

You're a designer. You want to learn. You want learn how to be a design thinker. You're studying design. You're top of your class. You understand branding. You're a skilled typographer. You know how to use software inside and out. You love challenging yourself and being challenged by others. You're a clear communicator. You love to research. You love to help out. You want to learn from the best. You get our work. You get what we're going for. You want an internship at Puncture.

Puncture is an award-winning creative studio. No matter the medium, we take on creative challenges. We're inspired by arts and culture and strive to make work that shapes and inspires back. We are seeking a highly motivated Design Intern with an appetite for branding and a passion for art & design to learn from our growing team.

The Design Intern works with the creative team to conceptualize, develop, design and execute creative collateral.

Principal Duties and Responsibilities

- Performing desk-research under the guidance of the Design Director
- Preparing drafts of material based on internal briefing
- Supporting intermediate and senior creative team in concept development
- Developing design collateral for multiple clients across multiple platform
- Building client-facing decks
- Preparing files for print/publishing

Required Experience and Skills

- Skilled in Adobe CC Suite, specifically:
  - Illustrator
  - InDesign
  - Photoshop
- Working knowledge of web and print best practices
- Experience with Premier and After Effects an asset
- Knowledge of HTML & CSS an asset

Interested candidates can apply at contact@puncture.co with a PDF or link to their portfolio. Please use the subject line "Application for 2019 Design Intern". Only applications which include a portfolio will be considered.